WARNES LAW MAY STAND IN FUTURE

Fate of Beiter Bill, Changing Taxation System, In Hands of Assembly

THIS QUESTION HINGES ON THE ACTION OF DEMOCRATS

ON CONFERENCE REPORT

Some May Vote for the Bill
But It Must Get Two-Thirds In Each House—
Suggested That Emergency Clause Be Re-Written to Avoid Mention of Invalidity of Warnes Law.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, March 24.—Whether the tax duplicate this year is to be made up by Warnes law district assessors, or by county auditors, is the question which hinged today on the action of the Democratic minorities
of the house and senate in voting for the Beiter emergency taxation bill, which would supplant the district assessor with county auditors.

Democrats of both the house and senate appeared still divided on the question of whether to vote affirmatively
or negatively on the report of the conference committee appointed yesterday when the house on reconsideration, refused to concur in senate amendments.

A number of Democrats announced
their intention of voting for the bill
as an emergency but there was great doubt that enough votes would be cast this way to insure the necessary two-thirds vote. If it does not receive 82 votes in the house and 22
in the senate, the bill will be dead
and the tax duplicate this year will be made under the direction of the district tax assessors appointed under the Warnes law.

The conference committee today
reached an agreement to report out
the Beiter bill with the senate
amendments, and to rewrite the emergency clause so that reference to the Warnes law as unconstitutional would be eliminated. This was to be reported to both houses when they met this afternoon.

The new bill provides for free distribution of a propylactic solution for washing the eyes of new born babies by health authorities to persons who cannot afford to pay for the material. Dr. Deaton secured enactment of the existing law requiring the reporting of cases of congenital blindness 20 years ago, as the first legislation of the kind.

The committee also was about to report the Harding bill providing that physicians who prescribe for habitual users of narcotic drugs must make a report to the state board of health, showing the gradually diminishing dose to be prescribed in the future. The bill makes Ohio's narcotic drug law conform with the new Harrison federal law. If the legislature enacts the Snyder bill
which the public health committee
expected to report with recommendation for passage, every municipal hospital in Ohio will be placed under the direction of a board of three supervisors, appointed by the mayor,
instead of under the safety director
as at present.

For more than an hour today Governor Willis conferred in his private office with Republican leaders over the Parrett-Whittemore taxation bill, which is pending in the senate. Participating in the conference were Senators Howard and Garver, Representatives Parrett, Whittemore and Beiter, and Peter W. Durr, auditor of Hamilton county.

They discussed the proposal that the taxation bill be amended to reduce the authority of the state tax commission to hear and decide appeals from county boards of revision.
A number of county auditors are said to favor strongly giving county
officials final authority in disputes over assessments. The senate taxation committee will take up the question formally soon.

Adjournment in two weeks was discussed informally among Republican legislative leaders here today.
The proposal came from the senate
side of the legislature and house
leaders did not receive it with friendly expressions. They said the house finance committee will need at least three weeks more to complete the biennial appropriations bill. Speaker Conover said today the house has its work in such condition that it prob-

HUSBANDS SELDOM DESERT BIG WOMEN IF THEY WILL WORK.

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Chicago, March 24.—Wives
who are physically large and who are willing workers seldom are deserted, according to a report on the causes of desertion
in Chicago, made by investigators for the bureau of public welfare.

The percentage of desertion
was shown to be the lowest among Italians and the highest among the American born. Unemployment was shown to be responsible for more than 70
per cent of all desertions.

Next to steady employment,
plenty of children seems undoubtedly to be the best possible guarantee of marital permanence, said Mrs. Leonora Z. Meder, commissioner of the welfare bureau today.

AUSTRIA THINKS WAR WITH ITALY VERY PROBABLE

OFFICIAL ORGAN AT ROME
URGES GOVERNMENT TO PREPARE FOR CRISIS.

Italy Seizes 29 Freight Cars Loaded
With Supplies for the Krupp Gun Works.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Geneva, via Paris, March 24.—The Austrian government now considers war with Italy more than probable,
according to dispatches received here from Vienna. A large number of troops have arrived in the Tyrol
and Trieste, where defensive works
are being constructed.

The Geneva Tribune professes to have received advices from Austria
to the effect that the dual monarchy might consider the signing of a separate peace with Russia with out consulting Germany, offering as a concession to cede to Russia large portions of Galicia.

ITALY MUST ACT
WITH ENERGY IN THIS EMERGENCY.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Rome via Paris, March 24.—Commenting favorably upon the adjournment of the chamber of deputies, the Giornale D'Italia says every deputy now is convinced of the necessity for Italy to act energetically, "facing
any sacrifice, even a supreme struggle, to realize Italian aspiration." The paper adds:

"With the full liberty of action
granted by parliament, the government now is free to choose the way,
the means and the hour of using the weapons at its disposal with the firmness and prudence necessary to insure success while the country,
calm and disciplined, is ready for everything."

SUPPLIES SEIZED BY
ITALY DESTINED FOR
GERMAN GUN WORKS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Geneva, via Paris, March 24.—The Italian government ordered the seizure
yesterday at Luino, near the Swiss frontier of twenty-nine freight cars containing graphite, sulphur and other supplies said to have been destined for the Krupp gun works
at Essen, Germany. The Tribune reports that an Italian agent at Luino
was arrested on the charge of purchasing the materials.

ANOTHER CANADIAN LOAN.

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 24.—Another Canadian loan of 5,000,000 pounds
sterling ($25,000,000), at 4 1/2 per cent has been announced. The price is 99 1/2 and the obligations are redeemable in five and ten years.

Ten Vessels Rush To Aid of Sinking Ship; All Aboard Are Saved

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, March 24.—The Mal-lori line, owners of the American Steamer Denver, received confirmation today of the wireless message
sent last night from the steamer
St. Louis announcing the Denver's crew had been taken off and the Denver had been abandoned 1,300
miles east of New York.

This confirmation came in a wireless message from Captain Avery of the Denver. The message said that the Denver had been abandoned in a sinking condition and that Captain Avery and his crew were aboard the Atlantic transport liner Manhattan,
and would reach this port next Saturday.

A somewhat conflicting message
which stated that the Denver's captain and his wife were aboard the steamer Megantic was received by wireless today from G. E. Metcalfe,
the Megantic's captain, by the White

AERIAL RAID BY BRITISH AT ANTWERP

SIDERABLE.

5 MACHINES TOOK PART

One Was Forced to Descend,
Two More Returned Because of Weather But the Others Dropped the Missiles From a Height of 1,000 Feet, According to Official Report.

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 24.—The British admiralty this afternoon issued a statement, saying that a British air raid had been successfully carried out
today on German submarines at Hoboken, three miles outside of Antwerp.

The text of the admiralty statement follows:

"The following has been received
from Wing Commander Longmore:
"I have to report that a successful
air attack was carried out this morning by five machines of the Dunkirk squadron on the German submarines
being constructed at Hoboken, near Antwerp."

"Two of the pilots had to return
owing to thick weather, but squadron commander Ivor T. Courtney, and Flight Lieut. H. Rosher reached their objective and after planing down to 1,000 feet, dropped four bombs each on the submarines.

"It is believed that considerable damage has been done to both the works and two submarines.

"The works were observed to be on fire. In all, five submarines were observed on the slip.

"Flight Lieutenant B. Crossley
Meates was obliged by engine trouble to descend in Holland. Owing to the mist the pilots experienced considerable difficulty in finding their way
and they were subjected to a heavy gun fire whilst delivering their attacks."

ONE AVIATOR WAS FORCED TO DESCEND
BUT WAS NOT HURT.

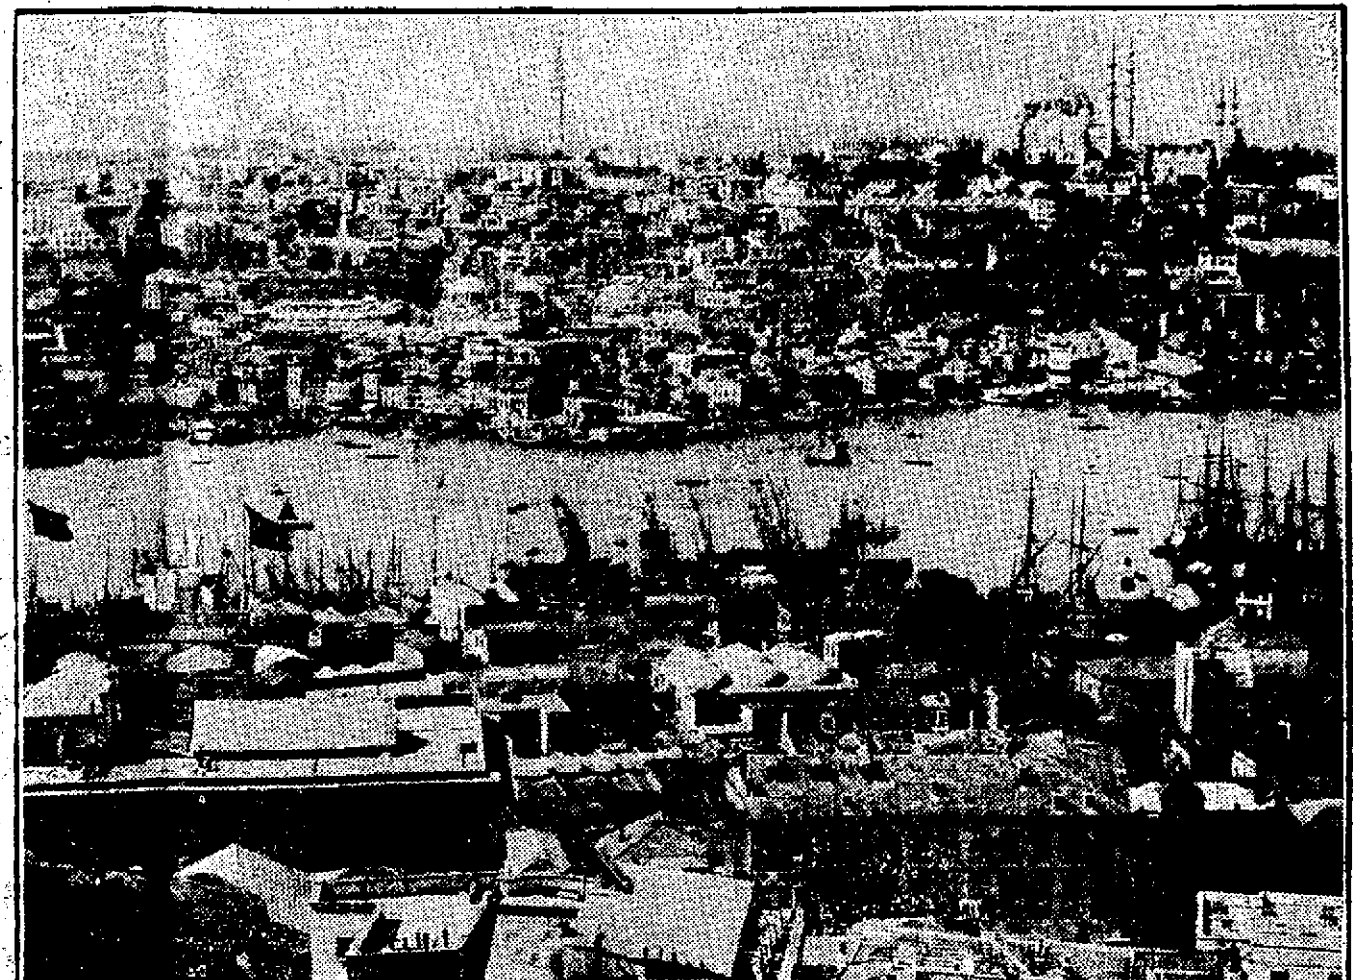

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 24.—Flight Commander Crossley Meates, of the British aviation service in consequence of engine trouble while enroute to make an attack on Antwerp, was obliged to land at Kruningen, according to a dispatch from The Hague to Reuter's Telegram company. The aviator was not injured. He will be interned.

Italy Has Refused Germany's Request For a Safe Conduct

Rome, via Paris, March 24.—The Italian government is said to have refused a request made by Germany
that a mission sent to Chief Erythra
be permitted to continue its journey
through that district into Abyssinia.
Italy's refusal is reported to have been based upon the belief that the object of the mission was to incite
an attack by Abyssinians upon British forces in Sudan.

Erythra is an Italian protectorate
in East Africa, bordering on the Red Sea, opposite Turkish territory in Asia.

Constantinople Believed Doomed As Allied Fleet Forces Way Through Dardanelles.

According to reports from various sources Constantinople has seized the inhabitants of the Moslem capital
as news of the approach of the allied
land and sea forces becomes known.
The army known to be defending Constantinople does not number more than 100,000 men and there is grave
reason to believe that if the allies ever come within striking distance of Constantinople, the city will not be able to hold out very long. It is thought that the food problem is severely pinching the Turks. Hasty fortifications are being thrown about the city and the men manning the defences are receiving constant drill
in gun work for the expected engagement with Vice Admiral Carden's combined squadron. The picture is taken from the fire tower of Galata
looking southwest, across the Bos-phorus to the Ottoman capital.

Thrilling Story of An Eyewitness to Terrific Bombardment of Forts

(Associated Press Telegram)
Dardanelles, Thursday, March 18.
(Via Constantinople, and Berlin, March 21, and London, March 24.)

One French battleship, the Bouvet, sent to the bottom; one British battleship, name unknown as yet to the observers on shore, driven on the beach and broken to pieces, and three other ships of the allies damaged to such an extent that it was found necessary to take them out of action, while on the other side the Turkish forts on the Dardanelles
have not been silenced and the losses sustained by their garrisons are nominal; these are the details of
the result of the tremendous efforts
made by the allied fleet on March 18 to force the passage of the Dardanelles.

The action lasted nearly seven hours during which time there was a terrific cannonade from the ships of the allies and the Turkish forts. The fire from the warships at times was exceedingly severe while the Turkish gunners maintained their precision wonderfully, even when they were literally buried in the earth and debris which the exploding shells

from the warships threw broadcast over their positions.

The allies put in an appearance at about 11:30 o'clock in the morning,
throwing their first shells in the town of Chanak Kalesi. Their vessels at this hour numbered four
French and five British battleships.
A little later five other British warships entered the bay and the bombardment rapidly became truly terrific and wonderfully spectacular.

The correspondent of the Associated Press had taken shelter in Fort Chimenlik, but he was driven out by shells to a position on a hill
outside the town. But even this hill already was burning in two places as a result of exploding shells. In the beginning the range of the British and French gunners was excellent.

The correspondent saw a shell land
fair on the corner of the Fort Kale Sultanie tower and tear out a large hole in the masonry. This routed out a party of newspaper correspondents who were just about to leave cover.

While traversing Chanak Kalesi
several houses were knocked to

American Missionaries Are Reported to be In Great Danger In Persia

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 24.—American Consul F. W. Smith, stationed at Batumi, Russia, and who now is at Tiflis, informed the state department
today that American missionaries and refugees were in danger at Urumiah,
Persia, where the Turkish consul,
Kasim Bey, at the head of 700 Askaris was recently reported to have led an uprising against the American mission.

Secretary Bryan said that everything possible would be done to protect Americans and refugees from danger,
but that as yet no direct steps had been taken. On March 21, reports first reached this country from Petrograd
of the attack at Urumiah. The Turkish consul was reported to have ordered three priests and two deacons
to leave the mission and as they were passing through the streets they were insulted and beaten. An American missionary, Mr. Allen, also was reported to have been subjected to insults. He succeeded in sending messengers to Selmas, asking for help.

The message to the state department
today gave no details of the peril of the Americans and refugees at Urumiah, nor did it mention Allen.

The nearest American forces are the cruisers Tennessee and North Carolina in Mediterranean waters, but geographically it is impossible for them
to get near the scene.

Dispatches received from Tiflis at headquarters of the Persian war relief committee in New York yesterday said all villages but three had been burned; that many people had been killed; women had been taken captives; the French mission had been destroyed and 15,000 refugees were at the American mission. It added there was great danger.

WARSHIPS SENT TO PORTO RICO BY DEPARTMENT

TO GUARD AGAINST VIOLATION OF NEUTRALITY BY GERMAN SHIPS THERE.

Reports That They Might Attempt to Run the Guns of Morro Castle
—Odenwald Case.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 24.—The United States district attorney at San Juan, Porto Rico, had instructions today to begin libel proceedings against the Hamburg-American liner
Odenwald, which tried to put to sea
Sunday after clearance had been refused her while the cutter Algonquin was steaming from the West Indies
to San Juan to aid American officials in efforts to guard against violations of neutrality. Secretary Daniels also had instructed Admiral Fletcher at Guantanamo to despatch
two destroyers to Porto Rico to cooperate in that work.

Orders for the movement of the American ships were given after officials here received reports from San Juan that some fear was felt that the Odenwald and another German liner might try to slip to sea past the guns of Morro Castle. The report mentioned the other ship as the Praesident, now tied up at San Juan.

Action ordered against the Oden-wald is the first taken under authority of the neutrality resolution adopted by congress in the closing days of the last session. Under the proceedings, the Odenwald might be held in custody of a marshal until it was determined whether she should be forfeited to the United States, or the vessel's owners might give bond
for her release pending settlement
in the courts.

Admiral Fletcher, commander of the Atlantic fleet, notified the navy department that the destroyer Warrington left Guantanamo. Cuba last night for San Juan, Porto Rico and should arrive there tonight. Secretary Daniels said it was not planned to send another naval craft to San Juan at present.

No Shackles Used On Indians, Arrested By Scott In Wilds of Utah

(Associated Press Telegram)
Thompson, Utah, March 24.—Seated at the head of the table, Brigadier General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, at the little hotel at Thompson, served four dooble and apparently happy Indians at dinner last night. The Indians who had been pursued by a posse headed by U. S. Marshal Nebeker for two weeks, surrendered to General Scott, near Bluff, last week. The Indians were Old Polk, chief of one of the dis-visions of the renegade Piutes: Tes-Ne-Gat, son of Old Polk, who is charged with murder; Old Posey, chief of the other division of renegades
and a son of Posey. All of the Indians referred to General Scott in their Pine tongue as their Good White Father. The general insisted that the Indians were not prisoners, but "just his boys." The Indians showed keen delight when the general insisted that he and the Indians be given a separate table away from the "white folks."

Not a handcuff, not a shackle, binds
these Indians, but the tie of genuine regard for General Scott is such that it would probably take a posse larger than that which U. S. Marshal Nebeker brought to Bluff to drive them from him.

After they had eaten, the Indians
were supplied with cigarettes by General Scott and then permitted to wander about with perfect freedom. The general's only concern was that the Indians might be run over by a train.
They had never seen a railway train
before and can hardly resist the temptation to get close to the cars. Two Indians had their first automobile ride, coming from Montezuma, and they are looking forward with eagerness to their first train ride, which

GREECE WAITING FOR BULGARIA TO JOIN THE ALLIES

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 24.—According to the newspapers of Athens, Greece will not range herself on the side of the triple entente powers by herself, the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company says in a dispatch from the Greek capital. She will take an active part in the war only co-jointly with Bulgaria. Isolated intervention on the part of either Greece
or Bulgaria, the correspondent continues, would be regarded in Athens as ineffective.

FOUND GUILTY OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER; KILLED DETECTIVE.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, Ohio, March 24.—After eight hours' deliberation, the Common Pleas court jury returned a verdict of first degree murder in the case of Peter Skribner, aged 35,
who was charged with having shot
and killed Kaiser Barickki, detective,
on the night of Jan. 21.

Previous to the shooting of Bar-
rickki, Skribner shot and wounded
Pauline Mism because she refused to marry him. It is charged. Following this Skribner returned to his boarding house where the police appeared later to apprehend him. It is alleged that Skribner shot Barrickki to avoid arrest.

Mrs. Jerry Roach of Columbus spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Chas.
Schaller in Elmwood avenue.

ONE SIDED VIEWS ON RELIGION, THEME OF EVANGELIST IRWIN

"Religious quandary" was subject of a sermon by Evangelist Irwin at sermon by Evangelist Irwin at the West Main Street Church of Christ last night. His text was John 17:20-23.

He said that much of the religious difference in the world is due to one sided views, and misunderstandings. When the blind men went to see the elephant they obtained different ideas about the creature. One of them by chance, fell near the elephant's fore-leg, and after examining it for a while he exclaimed: "I very clearly see the elephant is like a tree."

The second got hold of the elephant's trunk, and he said: "You are mistaken, sir: the elephant is not like a tree; but more like a rope." The third got hold of the elephant's ear, and he declared: "You fellows are blind as bats, the elephant is neither like a tree nor like a rope, but is like a fan. Now, the fact is that all were correct; yet all were mistaken. They had only partial views. The elephant, as an entirety is entirely different from a tree, a rope or a fan."

So in religion, some see a particular truth, or a body of truths to which they pin their faith, failing to see or ignoring other truths equally important. For example some think faith the all-essential in salvation when in reality it is but one essential. Others make repentance the prime requisite, and say that a "change of heart" which will lead to a moral life is the all-essential. Still others maintain that baptism is essential to forgiveness and yet others that salvation is a thing entirely in the hands of God. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God," Eph. 2:8. Finally others, who say "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling—Phil. 2:12." Now the true way declared the evangelist "is to combine all these things: whatever God connects with salvation we should connect with it. We should not shun to declare the whole counsel of God." Wherein do all He has commanded. God will willingly do his part in the plan of salvation.

The subject tonight will be "Secret Discipleship." Special music. One hundred and forty-six accessions up to date.

having delivered there a cargo of cotton.

Later the apparent conflict in messages was cleared up with the announcement by the Mallory line that Captain Avery of the Denver was aboard the Megantic, from which his message was sent, and that the Megantic was the vessel due here Saturday. The Manhattan is expected to reach here Monday.

The Megantic was one of ten vessels which hurried to the stricken steamer when she first sent out her wireless call. The first to reach her was the Manhattan. The St. Louis was next, sighting the Denver after a search of 21 hours. Apparently twenty-four hours more elapsed from the sending of the first call for help and the rescue of the Denver's crew.

NO SHACKLES

begins when they start for Salt Lake City today.

General Scott's story of the pacification of the Indians, told last night, follows:

"We left Washington to come out here to attempt to settle this little misunderstanding on March 3. With me were Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. L. Michie, my aide-de-camp, and Trooper P. R. Randolph of the Fifth cavalry, my orderly. We reached Thompsons on March 8, and went to bluff, going by automobile, wagon, sleigh, horseback and on foot. At bluff, we learned that Polk and Posey and their Indians had gone to the Navajo mountains, some 125 miles west of bluff. We stayed a day in bluff and went to Mexican Hat, on the San Juan river, 28 miles west of bluff.

"We sent a friendly Plute, called Jim's Boy, out to tell the Plutes that I wanted to see them. Some of them came in to tell me where they camped, but it was not until the third day that any dared to come to the camp.

"Posey and four other Indians then came into camp. We talked a little through a Navajo interpreter. It was in the evening, and I just asked them how they were. I told them I did not feel very well, and did not want to talk to them until the next day. They helped us kill a beef, and we gave them a good meal, the first they had had for several weeks. They were poorly clad and we gave them some blankets. Posey and his men did not have any weapons, but I have reason to suspect that they had hidden them in the rocks nearby.

"The next day Polk and Hatch and about 25 others came in to see me. I asked them to tell me their troubles. They said the cowboys had come in the daylight on horseback and surrounded them, shot their children and wounded a squaw. They said they didn't like the cowboys. It seemed that had previously had trouble with the cowboys.

"Then I told them some of my troubles. I told them I didn't think they would like to have their children chased by soldiers and cowboys all over the mountains and killed. I told them that I wouldn't like to have my children treated that way, and that I would be glad to do anything I could to stop it. I didn't try to push matters with them. I told the agents to see that they had provisions and blankets for the rest of their people and for their squaws and children. I told them that after they had thought matters over, I wanted them to tell me what they wanted to do about it. They talked together and then said they said they wanted to do just what I wanted to do just what I wanted them to do.

"Then we sat down in a circle and I said: 'The marshal wants you, and you and you,' indicating Posey, Polk, Hatch and Posey's boy, 'to go with him to Salt Lake. The rest of you can go back to your people and go to the reservation with the agents. Is that all right?' They said it was, and further they said that if I said so they would all come to Salt Lake.

"Then we broke camp and all rode ponies back into bluff. We rode ahead and let the Indians follow us. They have never been ironed or shackled, never even led to believe they are prisoners. They never tried to get away. Why, I don't believe we could get rid of them if we tried. At night, they have slept together and nobody has stood guard over them.

"They are perfectly harmless now. All the Indians are satisfied. The whites are over their scare and there will be no more trouble from this band of Indians. The Indians are just children, easy to alarm and sometimes hard to appease. They had worked themselves up to a pitch where they were getting very dangerous. They were attempting to get a large band of Navajos to join them in an outbreak. Where they camped in the wild broken country near the Grand Canyon, they would have been mighty hard to dislodge. It would have taken a large force of cavalry, two regiments probably, to subdue them, and it would have cost the government $25,000 just to get the soldiers in here."

None of the four Indians talks English. Through an interpreter, Tse-Negat, or Hatch, said he was not guilty of any crime. When asked about the Mexican he is accused of killing, he said:

"The Mexican was my friend. We camped together. I did not kill him. Why should I kill my friend?"

pieces by exploding shells. The trip to the town was accelerated by the well directed shots. While the correspondents were on the water from several large shells exploded 100 yards away and splinters from them filled the air. This attention from the British gunners was due to the fact that the party of correspondents was moving along in the center of a body of soldiers.

The fire from the warships soon became general. One shell buried itself in the ground close to the observers; fortunately in exploding it did no damage. The hillside toward which the correspondents were making their way finally was reached at about 12:30 o'clock. It was then seen that the British had concentrated their fire upon the forts. The noise of the explosions and the replies of the Turkish batteries were deafening.

The area of fire was so extended that at certain times the correspondents were unable to find cover anywhere. A certain vantage point, however, was finally decided upon and from this position the observers looked upon a wonderful assault; the concentrated attack of a large group of modern battleships against well built and well-defended land fortifications.

The British ships were firing heavily and continually. At times the smoke was so thick that it completely blotted out the horizon and totally enveloped the particular Turkish fort under fire. One would get glimpses of the fortifications lifting their higher points out of clouds of gray smoke. The severity of the fire led one to think the fort had been blown away, but time and again the smoke cleared and showed the Turkish position virtually undamaged.

The fire of the Turks was rapid and accurate, so much so that the fire from the allied warships became erratic. Many shots flew high while others fell short. One result of this was that the town of Chanak Kalessi behind Forts Hamidieh and Chemenlik, had wide avenues cut through it. Fire broke out in the Greek quarter and destroyed a considerable number of houses. In the meanwhile, Turkish soldiers were formed into five brigades and were successful in keeping the flames down.

The bombardment reached its greatest intensity at 3:15 in the afternoon, when all of a sudden the French battleship Bouvet was observed to be riding low by the stern. The next minute she swung a little to port. At the same time her after-deck disappeared under water. For about two minutes she held in this position, the water nearing her completely by the stern, her bows clear of the water and pointing toward the sky. The next instant the waves closed over the ill-fated vessel. It was believed she had struck a mine. Boats rushed to the rescue, but only a few men were saved.

A few minutes later a large Turkish shell was seen to strike the deck of a British vessel. When the smoke of the explosion had cleared away, it was seen that the vessel's foremast had been cut off near the crow's nest and bent to one side. Her rigging was hanging down in a tangled mass. This same shot apparently also damaged the machinery, for it could be seen that the vessel was experiencing difficulty in gaining the open sea.

This was hardly over when another vessel was struck heavily on the deck. She also was obliged to retire under a galling Turkish fire.

But the greatest tragedy came at about 4:45 o'clock in the afternoon, when a British warship was so badly damaged that she was obliged to run ashore within range of the Turkish guns. For one hour, until a quarter before six, warships of the allies stood by and protected their stranded companion with a heavy fire from the Turkish forts, but the coming of night obliged them to withdraw, leaving behind them the ill-fated vessel. The Turkish gunners directed an accurate fire against her and she was still holding out at the time this dispatch was written. Eight shots were seen to strike the vessel's deck full and square within ten minutes. Nevertheless, she continued to return this terrific fire. Her shots had no apparent effect upon the fort.

So far as has been ascertained up to the present time, the Turkish losses today have been one gun jammed by debris, two men killed and fifteen slightly wounded. Other reports on damages have not yet come in, but it is understood that they were very slight.

The fire from all the vessels of the allied fleet came to an end at sundown. Not one gun in a Turkish fort was silenced, in spite of the fact that something between 1200 and 2000 shells were fired at the shore positions. Tonight Chanak Kalessi is still burning in two places and there is maintained a fire on the other side of the water in Kilid Bahr. On shore it is felt that the work of today has resulted in a victory for the Turks. The British and French vessels today ventured close enough to come within range of Turkish guns which up to the present time, had not been fired.

The official account of the operations of the allied fleet against the Dardanelles forts on March 18, as given out by the British admiralty, said that the British battleships Irresistible and Ocean and the French battleship Bouvet were sunk by drifting mines. It was added that the French battleship Gaulois was damaged by gun fire and that the British battle cruiser Inflexible had been hit by a heavy shell on her forward control position and required repairs.

WARNES LAW

ably will be ready to quit before the senate is ready.

Most examinations conducted by the state and municipal civil service commissions under the present law would be nullified by the civil service bill as amended by the house. The amendments make the bill virtually the original Barnes bill. Employees holding positions under non-competitive examinations could continue to hold as provisional appointments, but their positions would be filled eventually from lists of those who take new competitive examinations.

As amended, the bill also would make state and municipal service commissions of three members. Public employees who have held positions for seven years would be exempted from taking new examinations. All officials and employees of state universities and colleges would be exempted from civil service regulations.

Civil service commissioner C. H. Bryson has declared enactment of the measure will mean waste of $500,000 spent for conducting examinations under the present law.

All the members of the Burton-on-Trent Rugby club, England, have volunteered for service in the European war, 60 being in the new army and four in the Legion of Frontiersmen.

New York will conduct a special school for the instruction of street sweepers in their duties.

Great Saving to Tax-Payers

Saving of $37375.00 for ten years at lowest calculation. The Ohio Light & Power Company claims city consumed 575000 kilowatt hours in 1913. We will take their figures for illustration of great saving to taxpayers, by reason of having a municipal plant.

The difference between O. L. & P. Co.'s propositions of .0175 and .011 is .0065 per kilowatt hours calculated on the basis of current they claim consumed in 1913 of 575000 kilowatt hours .0065 saving one year $37,375.00 saving ten years $373,750.00.

Saving sufficient in ten years to cover the cost of construction of proposed new municipal plant. Isn't it reasonable to assume that in case we had not had a municipal plant they would have charged the first price and probably more? A clear demonstration of the necessity of maintaining a municipal plant and having a club to hold over the head of a monopoly.

If after extensions of lines are made we should consume on a 4000 hour basis 800000 kilowatt hours as claimed by Mr. Christian, the saving in ten years would be $32,520.

The more we consider the motives and method of the O. L. & P. in trying to eliminate competition, the more vigorous we should become in espousing the cause of a municipal plant.

The O. L. & P. Co. thought they had a councilman that could secure from the city the first proposition of .0175, but unfortunately we had officials and citizens who desired to protect our city's interest.

After the O. L. & P. Co. discovered that an investigation as to the cost of the production of current from a matter-of-fact standpoint was going to be made, they reduced their price, and why?

Because they feared the demonstration of what the new municipal plant could produce current for.

Because they knew that Mr. Christian, our service director, has made good in all of his efforts to protect and conserve the city's interest.

Because they have to have a monopoly on the sale of current in the municipalities they supply in order to pay dividends to their stockholders and a new cent interest on their $30,000,000.00 blanket mortgage.

Because they know that the city could produce current for less than their second proposition of .011 and consequently offered a new bait, but it will not avail them anything in their strenuous efforts to monopolize the sale of current for light and for private consumption.

Because the real issue is not street lighting, but because of the fear of the success of municipal plant in demonstrating what current can be produced for and its effect on their sale of current for private consumption.

It's the consumer they are after.

Don't let citizen in his juggling of figures and trying to deceive the voter in distorting the issue mislead you.

The O. L. & P. Co.'s citizen failing to make the impression that he desired from the juggling of figures resorted to the method of trying to cast a reflection on one of our highest and most successful citizens and city officials. Let us compare the motive of Citizen and Mr. Christian.

Citizen is resorting to the old monopoly schemes. After failing to control our city officials resorted to the method of trying to deceive the voters by offering something for less than cost. A fine alibi, isn't it, in his attempt to ridicule Mr. Christian?

Danger should be placed before all signs of selling products for less than cost.

Mr. Christian on the other hand is trying to protect our citizens' interest. Can you conceive of any sound reason why Mr. Christian would want to construct a municipal plant if he did not honestly believe that he could produce current at 8-10 of one cent per kilowatt hour? Of what interest is it to Mr. Christian as a citizen, tax-payer and employee of the city to advocate a proposition that he did not believe in?

Remember Mr. Christian has handled our city affairs efficiently and conservatively and we are pleased to note is praised for his success and ability by our leading citizens. Even those prejudiced against the light proposition praise him.

We do not have to go to Australia, Germany and Canada for practical demonstrations of the benefit to the consumer of municipal plants. Detroit, Lansing, Cleveland, Chicago, Chicago, Mass., and hundreds of others from Lakes to Gulf, coast to coast are demonstrating that they can sell current to the private consumer at less than half that charged by the O. L. & P. Co. in Newark.

There are forty-two of our leading cities in the United States owning municipal plants that are free from debt and are a great success. The practical demonstration of the success of municipal plants has caused a marvelous growth in the United States of municipally owned plants with the result that one out of every three is municipally owned.

We are confident that the O. L. & P. Co.'s motives will be considered in their effort to defeat our municipal plant. It is not only a privilege, but a duty we owe to our citizens to support the bond issue for the new plant.

We challenge Citizen to debate time and place to suit his convenience.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Gypsy Arrested for Getting $200 from Woman to Tell The Location of Pot of Gold

Sheriff Charles H. Swank Tuesday evening arrested Mrs. Ellen Smith, wife of a man known as "Gypsy" Smith, the woman being charged with obtaining the sum of $218 from Mrs. B. S. Quick of near Homer, O., under false pretenses. The woman was arrested near Crooksville, O., in a gypsy camp consisting of four men, three white and a negro, and three women. The woman, with the usual shrewdness of these nomads had been seeking some one on whom she could play her fortune-telling proclivities. At the time their camp was pitched near Homer and she visited the home of Mrs. Quick and induced the latter to have her fortune told. After examining her hand the gypsy woman said: "You are indeed fortunate for you are soon to meet with great wealth. You have been walking over a pot of gold for years and with a little time, patience and the assistance of money I can locate it for you."

Mrs. Quick gave the gypsy a sum of money amounting to nearly one hundred dollars and the woman said she would return in a couple of days with a chart giving the exact location of the hidden treasure. She came but instead of bringing the chart announced that "the planets were not working right" and that she must have more money. Mrs. Quick then gave her something over a hundred dollars and the gypsy announced that she would return Monday with the secret of the hidden gold. The gypsies in the meantime took their departure from the vicinity and late Monday afternoon some one phoned Mrs. Quick that the gypsy woman could not call for several days, as she was very ill. Mrs. Quick's suspicion was aroused and an investigation disclosed that they had left a couple of days before. She immediately got into communication with Sheriff Swank and that official traced them to a cemetery southwest of this city. From there he followed them to Somerset and then on to Crooksville, where the arrest was made and the woman returned to this city.

A warrant had been issued by Squire Fletcher S. Scott and the case was heard before that official this afternoon and continued until next Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

A. A. OWNERS VOTE ON SCHEDULE BY TELEGRAPH

(Associated Press Telegram) Chicago, March 24.—Club owners in the American Association voted by telegraph today on the adoption or rejection of a schedule for the coming season, submitted to Thomas M. Chivington, president of the association.

The schedule as drafted by Mike Cantillon of Minneapolis, A. F. Timme of Milwaukee and George Tebeau of Kansas City calls for 154 games. It is proposed to start the season on April 15, it was said.

SISTER LEAVES ESTATE TO LOVER OF DEAD BROTHER

Zanesville, Ohio, March 24.—Charges that Miss Leah Sandel, of this city, was insane when she made a will leaving her estate of $7,000 to Miss Fannie Burns, of Carlisle, Muskingum County, are made by George W. Sandel, a brother of the testatrix, who filed suit yesterday to contest the will.

Miss Burns, a schoolteacher, was engaged to be married to Miss Sandel's brother 20 years ago, but the engagement was broken off and the brother died a few years later. He left all his property to his sister with the stipulation, it is said, that when she died she was to leave the property to his old sweetheart.

Miss Sandel died two weeks ago. Europe's war has caused trouble in Colombia. Exchange rose 10.800 per cent ($108 in paper to $1 in gold). Still shows a tendency to go up. All prices for goods are high.

Readers' View Point

The Light Question.

Editor of The Advocate:—It is very amusing to notice now many people who are not taxpayers are taking such interest in the light plant controversy. It seems to be a question of more importance to a few people who have no interest at stake and who have some petty grievance against corporations than to those the issue most concerns. The real question is lost sight of in their efforts to down corporations.

The writer has in the past on several occasions noticed the appointments made at the present city plant and if the same "good" judgment would be used in the proposed city plant regarding appointments, he feels sure that the city would be buying new equipment every little while, for instance, heaters, etc.

On one occasion which is still fresh in my memory I remember a superintendent was appointed over the city plant who scarcely knew an incandescent lamp when he saw it. Do you think these are the kind of men that should be entrusted with $20,000 worth of the city's property? Surely no fair-minded man would be willing to trust his business to a person with absolutely no experience and yet this is what generally happens when business is mixed with politics. Everyone will admit that these men are elected or appointed because they have a "pull" rather than because they are competent to fill the position.

The Ohio Light & Power Company have erected a magnificent plant in our city, one that we can be proud of and is furnishing power and light to surrounding cities. They built the plant in this city of their own accord and did not ask for a large amount of money to get them to locate here as did some of the other industries of less importance. They offer this city a fair proposition and yet there are a few people who think that electricity can be manufactured cheaper.

What if we build a city plant and find that we cannot manufacture electricity as cheap as we can purchase it? What about the deficiency? Will some of the people who advocate such wonderful profits be willing to make good the loss?

Now in reference to monopolizing the electric industry and forcing the city to pay any price that The Ohio Light & Power Co. wishes at the end of the proposed contract. This is certainly a foolish idea. What is to keep the city from making a new contract before the one in force expires and surely at this future time the city will be better prepared to build a plant than she is at the present, overburdened with bonds.

I have noticed that several persons are comparing the gas case to the situation that would arise at the termination of the contract with the Ohio Light & Power Co., and can see absolutely no common sense to this argument. I will admit that the city was at the mercy of the gas company because it is impossible for a city to lease ground and put down wells to supply gas but I can see no reason why it would take longer to equip a plant five or ten years from now than it would at the present time if we would find the contract undesirable.

Mr. Voter which are you going to do buy electricity at the very low price or spend $20,000 or perhaps before you are through with it $40,000 or $50,000 and manufacture it at a price above that which the Ohio Light & Power Company offers it?

Remember the water works deal and on March 30th act accordingly.

COLD ON YOUR LUNGS?

A cold on the lungs is often dangerous. Don't delay! Hoff's German Liniment "hits the spot" and removes the danger in a hurry.

For Rheumatism, Lamé Back, Neuralgia, Cold on the Lungs, Cold in the Head, Bruises, Sprains, Aching Joints, Sore Feet, Bunions, etc., you simply rub it on the sore parts and the pain disappears. Can be taken internally for Colds, Coughs, Croup, etc. Thousands of mothers appreciate Hoff's German Liniment for relieving children's ailments. They know that there is nothing like Hoff's German Liniment for stopping pain. Made from white emulsion of camphor cream with other pure, harmless, effective ingredients. Everyone knows that camphorated oil rubbed on the chest is good for cold on the lungs, etc. The only objection to it is that it leaves the pores open, making one a waiting victim for the next attack of cold. Hoff's German Liniment keeps the pores closed—keeps colds out.

All druggists sell Hoff's German Liniment—a quarter pint for a quarter, large family size, 50c. It is pure and white as snow and it won't soil the finest clothes. It is stainless and greaseless and has a refreshing odor. We absolutely guarantee results and authorize your druggist to return your money if dissatisfied. There is only one genuine Hoff's German Liniment. Beware of substitutes.

It's now up to the Old Man to come home early and dig up the garden, so that the boys can play after school.

It is possible to learn the spiritual lessons of Easter, even if you don't make the milliner sit up until midnight to finish your new spring hat.

A well equipped High school may be able to get along without a science or penmanship teacher, but surely not without a baseball coach.

When you have your spring bonfire, then neighbors are so thankful to you for not setting their houses a blaze, that they don't mind and such little thing as the smell of burning bones and garbage.

The men who give the excuse that they don't care anything about an automobile, but are buying one to please their wives, are perhaps the same ones who borrow a boy to take to the circus.

Spring Housecleaning.

House cleaning is a stock subject for the newspaper funny men. From their point of view it is an annual craze, irrational and distressing, that in spring takes possession of the women. They turn their homes topsy-turvy, upset all of the Old Man's comfortable lurking places, disarrange his desks and his closets, so he can find nothing for a week.

It is of course not wholly joyful to come home and find all the furniture out in the yard. But judging by the looks of the average editor's desk, it is easy to see why he does not care for housecleaning. It sometimes seems as if order was distinctly unpleasant to the newspaper mind. Certainly two out of three of the men in our profession maintain working places in which the broom and dust brush have only the most partial sway.

The "devil" sweeps down the center of the room every week. But in the corners and around the edges, there are heaps of truck, old papers, and discarded material, that are never disturbed and around which dust and dirt accumulate. The average editor's desk is similarly a mess of pigeon holes stuffed with ancient papers, clippings, and circulars of no present use to his business, but which serve to assemble grime.

But at home cleanliness is still one of the ideals of housewifery. The women may neglect to learn to cook, they may turn off these housewifely cares on ignorant and blundering servants. But most women do have all of the old antipathy to dirt. The humblest home may be inside "neat as wax," as the old saying goes, the paint worn off the boards by the periodical scrubbing. One suspects that the persistence of this feeling is one of the greatest safeguards against the spread of disease.

Profits of Gardening.

The motives that persuade the householder to start in spring a back yard garden are perhaps more philosophical than mercenary. Many men have a contemplative and pastoral liking for "seeing things grow." The culture of infant beans and potatoes offers something of the same pleasure that comes from raising babies or dogs. Glass Making in Ireland.
That the great European war, though terrible in all of its aspects, cannot be classed as an "ill wind which blows good to nobody," was shown at a recent meeting of the Council of the Dublin "Industrial Development Association," at which the Secretary, Mr. Branagan, reported that:
"The glass bottle-making industry was not in so satisfactory a state as at present for the past thirty years. No German bottles were now coming to the country, and Irish firms were meeting the full demand, and were working full time."—The Irish World.

"Business Is King."

A professional lecturer is going about the country giving lectures upon the subject, "Business Is King." We have not heard his lecture, nor read it, but if he sticks to his subject he must deliver an interesting presentation. For the truth is, although it has not heretofore been so happily expressed, Business is King.
Not only one kind of business; not big business nor little business—but business. The business of making a living. The business of running the world—in providing food and clothing and shelter for the race—if that kind of business is not king, whom do we serve?—Dayton News.

Optimistic Robin Redbreast.

He is here, lightly leaping about the lawn, cheerfully chirping, inviting us all out to doors to rejoice with him in the coming of spring, to fill with fresh air the lungs long languishing in the semi-baked atmosphere of the furnace-heated house. He is here, Robert Redbreast, heralding the days of the greening of the grass, hopping among the snowdrops and crocuses, pecking the worms away from the slips and hyacinths as they begin to burst through a softening earth. Hailed as harbinger of spring, the robin is more than that. He is the bearer of a friendly infection, the spreader of the wholesome contagion of cheerfulness. His vocabulary has no sound of storm and woe. His musical cries are all tender or triumphant. He is the high priest of optimism. The robin's trill is the thrilling song of a world awake, arising from its winter sleep, stirring its powers and its hopes, inciting to new endeavors and to achievements.—New York World.

Pittsburg Steel Mills.

Those six iron and steel companies in the Pittsburg district that are planning to expend $10,000,000 in the enlargement and improvement of their plants must have greater faith in the future of their industry under a Democratic tariff than Senator Penrose has. Likewise it may be said that they also know a great deal more about their line of business than the Senator does. His strong-hold is platitudes and partisan appeals rather than a firm grip on details. That $10,000,000 speaks louder than a million speeches of tariff buncombe.—Philadelphia Record.

Ohio Legislative Notes

(Special to The Advocate)
Columbus, O., March 24.—Here is the Eighty-first general assembly of Ohio up a tree and the Willis administration with the tax system, the most important of all government features, in a muddle as the result of ill-considered actions. The attachment of emergency clauses by less than two-thirds vote is the cause of all the trouble, and this trouble was brought on by the attempt to make an emergency of the oil inspection law, designed simply to afford jobs for politicians, and satisfy the hungry who want on the payroll. When it was whispered that the work of the assembly was unconstitutional, Attorney General Turner was asked for an opinion, and when he had burned the midnight oil only to find the constitution was plain, the request was withdrawn, and the assembly has decided to go ahead, unless stopped by legal procedure. As James W. Faulkner quotes "What's the constitution among friends?" But there are chances that some honest tax payer will arise in his might and take a smote at somebody, especially when it is seen that the demoralization and disorganization of the tax system of Ohio will put the burden on the owners of tangible property, chief of whom are the farmers. The chief point in the matter is that it took the legislature twelve weeks to get started, that it spent from three to four thousand dollars a day—not including the carnations—to get ready and that then the work it did was illegal. This is a bad comparison with the work of the Eightieth general assembly, but of course it is said that the Eightieth had a boss, where its successor has only a lobby.

In the interest of economy the state administration has retained Daniel Torpy, former managing commissioner of the Ohio Panama-Pacific Exposition Commission, to look after affairs in San Francisco. His successor Newton D. Miller, salary $5,000, and Sherman Cunco, Governor Willis' press agent during the campaign, now secretary to the commission, are both in Ohio looking after politics.

In his statement to the house of Representatives Van S. Deaton, of Miami, made it clear that he was not posted as to the doings of the lobby in Cleveland but he told his fellow members that he knew something about the schoolbook lobby that is operating in Columbus. And nobody has demanded an investigation.

Judging from the pertinent fact that there was a balance of about $7,000,000 in the state treasury on February 15 and not the deficit charged in his first message to the general assembly, it would appear that Governor Willis is not a graduate of the commercial department of Ada University. Figures give him the headache.

If the minority had not detected the sleeper in the Willis bill establishing a "non-salaried" State Board of Agriculture would have cost the state $27,000 for "per diem allowances" as against the $20,000 now paid for salaries each year. The "sleeper" was inserted after the bill had been read in both houses.

"With the approval of the governor," three state boards have submissively named three strange young men as secretaries at $3,000 a year. They had to be introduced to the board members by the Governor's representative. Two of them were from Ada.

By its recent decision the Supreme Court of Ohio abolished one of the pesky state departments of which there was so much bogus complaint in 1914. Under orders from Governor Willis the obedient majority in the General Assembly has passed an emergency act re-establishing it. To escape the judicial order the measure provides that every cent of revenue received shall be spent for salary and expenses. In order to absorb all this money it will be necessary to establish a large number of new offices.

So offensive is the administration

rippler bill to emasculate the State civil service department that so case-hardened a partisan as Prof. Chas. Galbreath, State Librarian under the new regime, has entered his solemn protest against its passage. He'll be disciplined.

Every business organization in Cincinnati, the community that made it possible for Willis to be governor, has united in an appeal to the General Assembly against destroying the educational governmental machinery throughout the state. So did recent Methodist Men's State convention which adopted resolutions of protest with 2,000 votes.

Hamilton county's thoroughly business-like political organization got for its first helping from the grateful Governor, the State Highway commission, and control of about $10,000,000 annually of road contracts. Hereafter roads of all contractors will lead to Cincinnati.

Not a single state department has been restored to the state house since Frank B. Willis obtained the governorship on false pretensions.

Public and Private Economy.
"The people of the state should appreciate that governmental efficiency and economy is their own personal concern. It vitally affects their interests and involves the future prosperity of themselves and their children, whether or not they now happen to be direct taxpayers. The ultimate effects of improvidence, waste and extravagance in public expenditures reach every citizen, and, in fact, are always more injurious to the wage-earners and those of small means than to any other class in the community."—Governor Whitman of New York.

A New York business house has taken to heart the truth of the old rhyme:
See a pin and let it lie,
Come to trouble by and by.
See a pin and pick it up.
All the day you'll have good luck.
This concern has a combination of devices that enables it to pick up, sort and re-deliver pins that will leave no marks of dirt or metal upon the most stainless white goods. It believes it can save one dressmaking establishment one-half of its $1500 annual pin bills.

All the day this country will have "good luck" if it takes a lesson in simple thrift, the careful avoidance of waste, that used to be a national characteristic.

Between the hen and the consumer there is an estimated waste in eggs of $200,000,000 annually in this country, according to William Mann, attorney for the New York Central railroad company, who testified at the recent inquiry into the butter and egg business of the state made by the attorney general's office.

The witness said that no more than six out of ten eggs laid reach the consumer, making a $200,000,000 waste. Of this amount, he said, $50,000,000 is due to needless breakage in transit from the nest to the retailer. The balance of the loss represents unnecessary adding, spoiling and deterioration of good eggs due to poor handling.

Director Joseph A. Holmes of the National Bureau of Mines estimates that the cost of the waste in mining exceeds $1,000,000 daily, and he urges additional appropriations by the government to prevent this loss and the continual loss of life and good health by the miners.

Waste is rampant everywhere we look in this country. In the case of individuals, families, industries, municipalities and states. The national government itself does not escape the accusation of being extravagant in some respects.

These grave conditions must be remedied if we are to maintain our individual and national efficiency in these times of world trial.

The Songs of Yesterday.

Where are the good old songs we sang,
The songs of yesterday? When
"Sweet Marie" the country rang,
and "White Wings" held its sway. And where is "Annie Rooney" now, and where is "Sweet Adeline"? And "Climbing Up the Golden Stairs," we used to think that fine. We sang "Down Went McGinty" and "Two Little Girls in Blue" and "Maggie Murphy's Home"
could get an encore out of you. "Sweet Belle, Malone" has passed away,
"Goodby, My Lover, Goodby," "After
the Ball," you'll recollect, once brought tears to your eyes. And where is dear old "Peek-a-Boo," and "Mother Told Me So?" And how we long for "Dear
Louise" and charming "Molly O."
Where are the good old songs we sang,
the songs that once held sway? Just hum them o'er and feel the pang, the yearn for yesterday.

BEAUTY'S HAIR BRUSH.

How many times we have seen our friends use brushes and combs that we ourselves would loathe to use, and yet, a close inspection of our own brushes might reveal a state of neglect.

Now, the "proper manner" means that the hair should be combed out with a good comb which has large smooth teeth, with blunt tips set wide apart. Then the hair brush should be applied after the combing out process. Never use a brush with metal "bristles," because it is injurious. The brush should have genuine bristles, quite stiff, and set in rows rather wide apart. The proper brushing of the hair doesn't mean to brush it over until it is smooth and then stop, but to continue brushing it vigorously 15 minutes, night and morning. Be sure that both the comb and the brush touch the scalp at the beginning, stroke until your entire scalp has been massaged, as it were.

If you have a tendency to dandruff, this vigorous massage with brush and comb will loosen it and bring it out, and at the same time stimulate the circulation of the scalp, and a good circulation of the scalp means the end of dandruff.

All this, however, will not be of any value in beautifying your hair unless you keep brush and comb absolutely clean. Now I know most women would become indignant if they were told that they did not keep their brush and comb clean, but it is doubtful if the average woman ever sterilizes her brush and comb or gives them a thorough washing more than once in a very few months.

Dust and many other things injurious to the hair will collect in the brush and comb and then instead of benefiting the hair they will injure it by carrying this foreign matter to the roots. Sterilize brush and comb once a week.

Your Boys and Girls

A very valuable nursery possession is a tray of sand which will fit upon a child's small table, or even at a pinch rest upon the floor. The tray should have upright borders not less than four inches in height (and a little higher is better), and should contain a good heap of clean sand. This, when slightly moistened, can be built into all manner of fascinating objects, from the elementary "castle" of childhood to a complete railway line, with station, bridges, and tunnel, through which toy trains can be run; or the daintiest of miniature gardens planted with twigs and leaves and bordered with massive "rocks" formed of stones, over which more flowers will trail; or a fortified town, in which the soldiers, cannon, and the rest—naturally so popular this year—can attack and defend to the endless amusement of the young owner.

And this, again, need take no appreciable room, for the little owner can soon be taught to scoop the sand up, and put it in a closet receptacle.

the empty tray standing up quite out of the way until the next time it is used.

Mrs. O. H. Kline of Wheeling is the guest of her father, Mr. Frank Gress of Wilson street.

Miss Winifred H. Wilson, formerly of No. 156 North Fourth street, this city, now residing in New York City, is visiting Mrs. Edward Kibler, sr., Granville road.

Robert Graves of Cincinnati is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Postle in Granville street.

Miss Estella Devin, who is attending school at Delaware, is home for the spring vacation visiting her mother in North Morris street.

Jessie Gathrell is confined to his home in Johns street, suffering with the grip.

R. E. Harrison of Massillon, O., is registered at the Sherwood Hotel for a few days.

P. J. Young of Boston is a business visitor in the city today.

J. A. Russell of the American Electric company of Chicago is looking after business interests in Newark today.

Mrs. Clem Dotter (Marie Kuster) and little son Robert of Columbus are visiting at the home of Mrs. Dotter's mother, Mrs. J. S. Kuster in Wallace street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowen of Vanatta, O., have returned from Grafton, W. Va.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Shrontz of 89 Linden avenue are entertaining as their guest, Dr. J. F. Shrontz of Martinsburg.

REGISTRATION MARCH 26 AT CITY BUILDING

Newark voters who moved since last election day, or who have come to the city since that time or who will become of age before the 30th day of this month, must register anew if they will vote at the special election to be held next Tuesday on the question of issuing bonds for the reconstruction of the municipal lighting plant.

The board of elections will be in session at the offices of the board in the City Building next to the Central Fire station March 26 from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., and from 4 p. m. to 9 p. m.

The bond issue question is an important one and it is the duty of every voter to express his sentiments on the question either for or against. Make sure that you are registered.

Justice Scott's Court.
A well known young man about town was brought into Justice F. S. Scott's court today charged with an assault and battery upon another young man of his acquaintance. The trouble arose over a young lady of whom the aforesaid young man was jealous, having, it is said, seen his acquaintance in her company. He could not stand for that and challenged the other fellow to a mill. The latter couldn't see it and so the former took a couple of pokes at him anyhow. The arrest resulted and the pugilistic young man was fined $1 and the costs and warned not to attempt anything of the kind in the future or the penalty would be increased.

Society

The monthly meeting of the Newark Federation of Women's clubs will be held in Taylor Hall on Monday evening, March 29, at 7.15 o'clock instead of on Thursday afternoon. This will be an open meeting and all women interested in the work of this organization are cordially invited to attend Monday evening.

On Saturday evening, March 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherman, three miles southeast of Newark, an oyster supper was given by a number of their friends. The evening was spent in conversation, games and music furnished by George Adams and Oliver Williams on the violin, and Mrs. Blanche Watson on the organ.

The following guests were present: Messrs. and Mesdames Harvey Irwin, Roy Thompson, Nicholas Youse, Oliver Williams, Frank Daines, George Adams, George Miller, Joseph Watson, Bertram Watson, Ed Williams, Jackson Sherman, Arthur Sherman, Carl Simpson, Misses Mary, Harriet and Beulah Daines, Gladys Youse, Edith Layman, Helen and Edna Watson, Messrs. Russell and Howard Williams, Theodore Williams, Hazel, Richard, Elbert Merlan and Edwin Daines, Jas. Watson, John Peter Mikel, Edgar Sherman, and Fredene Watson.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rhoads of Hudson avenue was the scene Monday evening of a merry gathering when the ladies of the Unity Reading Circle entertained their husbands and a few invited guests. The main feature of the entertainment was a comic theatrical entitled, "Seeking a Servant."

The play was rendered in a manner that would have done credit to professional actors each in a clever manner, while the costuming of the various characters was a revelation to the guests.

The ladies will produce the piece again in a short time in Taylor hall for the benefit of the Public Library. The following is the cast of characters:

Madam Grosbenet..... Mrs. Bowers
Anastasia, her daughter..... Mrs. Cunis

Maria, the servant..... Mrs. Bell
Mary Ann Smith, from England..... Mrs. McGough

Cleopatra Victoria Johnson, from "Dixie"..... Mrs. Mitchell
Bridget Flanagan from Ireland..... Mrs. Millis

Anastasia Widgery Fishhook, from Maine..... Mrs. Moore
Rat-in-the-Hole, an Indian squaw..... Mrs. Slabaugh

Carmenita, a Spanish dancer..... Mrs. Moninger
Mrs. Olsen from Sweden..... Mrs. Rugg
Hop Sing, from China..... Mrs. Barrick

After the play various games were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by the Misses Rachel and Mildred Rhoads, Mildred Simson and Janice Barrick.

THE SICK

Miss Pearl Bishop was removed from the City Hospital in the Bradley ambulance Monday to her home near the Welsh Hills church.

Mrs. Henry Delay of Bolton avenue, was removed in the Bradley ambulance to the City Hospital for treatment.

Cary Coffman, residing east of St. Louisville, was taken to his home Tuesday in the Balzer ambulance. He has been a patient at the City Hospital for more than two weeks.

Mrs. Charles Schuplin was removed to her home in Martinsburg from the Sanitarium in the Bradley ambulance on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. E. Hickman, who recently underwent an operation at the Newark Sanitarium, was removed to her home in Ulica today in Criss Brothers ambulance.

John Morgan of Pittsburg was taken suddenly ill on the street Wednesday morning and the Balzer white ambulance was called to remove him to the Newark Sanitarium.

Some fellows are so addicted to killing time it's a wonder they are not ashamed to look a clock in the face.

No, Maude, dear, the flower of the family is not necessarily a wall flower.

'SQUIRE JONES FINED FICKLE FOR FISHING

After hearing the evidence in the case of the state against John Fickle of Buckeye Lake, charged by Game Warden Millinski with having in his possession contrivances to catch fish other than hook and line, namely, a fish trap, in the inland fishing districts of the state of Ohio, Judge D. M. Jones fined the defendant $25 and costs, staying the execution until April 2, which will give his attorneys a chance to carry the case to a higher court, which it is said they propose to do.

The case lasted for two days and was hotly contested, the court room being crowded at all times. A record of the case was taken by Court Stenographer Charles C. Cooper. Many witnesses were examined, including Harry (Shorty) Alsdorf, who is serving a term in the Franklin county jail on a similar charge. While in Columbus it is said that officials procured an affidavit from Alsdorf and although he was present in the justice court the prosecution introduced the affidavit and not the witness in person. The defense then called Alsdorf and he could not remember of making any of the statements contained in the affidavit.

Millinski and Fickle are brothers-in-law and there is said to be an element of personal trouble in the litigation. The former is charged by Fickle with an assault with attempt to kill and has been bound over to the grand jury.

BLIND ADVERTISEMENTS

"What is a 'Blind Advertisement'?" A sample of a "Blind Advertisement" is here reproduced:

Young man to work in store and drive delivery wagon, good character and good habits, reference required. Box 8233 Advocate. 3-23-3t

There are several different ways of running "Blind Advertisements." They are frequently used as above. The Advocate has a little Post office of its own using box numbers that do not conflict with those used by the U. S. Government.

Some times these "Blind Advertisements" are made to address "A. B." care Advocate or "Railway" care of Advocate.

We may state for the information of the general public that the Advocate knows nothing concerning these advertisements and the quickest way to get results is to address a letter to the Box number, or the letters given, just as if you were writing to some person living in Cincinnati or some other city.

Be sure to place a two cent stamp in the upper right hand corner of the envelope and address it just as if you were going to send it to some friend in another city, drop it in the nearest mail box and Uncle Sam will do the rest.

Box 8233
Care Advocate
Newark, Ohio

When your reply is received at the Advocate office it is immediately placed in the proper box if it has a Box number and the owner of that box calls for his mail just as he would were he going to call for mail at the Post Office.

Why are "Blind Advertisements" used? Because the person inserting the advertisement has some particular reason for not using his street address, phone number, or name. That is the reason they are called "Blind Advertisements."

Are they used much? Well just watch the classified columns of the Advocate. They get results or people would not use them. 3-24-3t

NEWARK ITALIAN ARRESTED AFTER WIFE CONFESSED

According to advices received here today, Antonio De Marini, Italian, who until Saturday night, was employed at the Vehrie plant, was arrested early Tuesday in Cincinnati on a charge of being implicated in the organization of Black Hand societies in Chicago and Los Angeles.

De Marini was arrested here several weeks ago by local police officers pending an investigation of his record while in Indianapolis where it was alleged he had shot a fellow countryman last September. He admitted having shot the man. Indianapolis officials refused to take up the case because the prosecuting witness had left that city.

Local police have information which leads them to believe that De Marini is a bad man. They were told Wednesday that when the Italian left Newark last Monday, he declared his intention to kill the man who ran away with his wife. Relatives of the woman here denied that she departed with another man.

She sought the aid of the Italian counsel at Cincinnati, who placed her in the home of the Sisters of Charity until she obtained employment in a Cincinnati home.

It is presumed here that De Marini caught her out in Cincinnati and to rid herself of his annoyances the woman told the police of his past record.

Mrs. De Marini is a daughter of Frank Perocco of South Fifth street, this city.

City Will Continue Control Of Poles, Lamps and Wires If the Current Is Bought

Municipal Ownership Not Involved In Present Controversy—City Can Buy Electricity Cheaper Than It Can Make It and It Should Do So.

Editor of The Advocate:

Why all this talk about the city abandoning its municipal street lighting system? Be not deceived by such talk—for talk it is and talk only. The city does not even contemplate going out of the business of lighting its streets, highways and public places.

The question is—shall the city buy the current to operate its street lamps or shall it make the current itself? Should the city buy the current it will still operate and maintain its street lighting system. It will still own its poles and wires and lamps and other fixtures. Employees of the city will continue to trim and clean the lamps. Employees of the city will continue to repair and keep in order the poles and wires. The city will continue to buy the carbons and lamps and materials necessary to properly maintain the street lighting system. The question of municipal ownership is not involved. In any event municipal ownership of the street lighting business will continue in Newark.

And, again with the lamps and wires and poles and all of the distribution system of the street lights thus kept under the absolute control and supervision of the Department of Public Service of the city, if the city should contract to purchase the current, the city would be in just as good a position to build a generating plant before the expiration of the contract as it is in now.

Can the city buy current cheaper than it can make it? It most certainly can. Then let the city buy the current.

Chicago Grain.
Corrected daily by Associated Press Telegram.
Chicago, Mar. 24.—Wheat prices underwent a setback today owing largely to the fact that the Liverpool market failed to respond to yesterday's strength in America. Some attention today was given reports that the British government had secured all wheat in India, and would endeavor to prevent all inflated profits. After opening 1/4 to 1/2 cent down, the market rallied somewhat, but then sagged lower than before.

Corn went downgraded with wheat. Selling business, however, was light, the opening, which varied from 1/4 to 1/2 cent off, was followed by a moderate further decline.
Oats turned easy with other grain

but the downward tendency was less pronounced than in wheat and corn. The buyers were cautious as a result of continued reports of delayed seeding. Large receipts of bushels throughout the west acted as a weight on provisions. Selling, though, was not of unusual volume.

New York Stock Exchange.
Corrected daily by Associated Press Telegram.
New York, Mar. 24.—The upward swing of the stock market was resumed at the beginning of today's business, many leading issues and a number of prominent ones making new high prices for the current movement. Among these were U. S. Steel, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, American Smelting, B. & O. American Can, some of the equipment group, notably American Locomotive and American Car and Foundry, in which the rise extended between one and two points.

Bethlehem Steel added another point to yesterday's decline. Trading was again very active with further, short covering.
Speculation broadened to a marked degree during the balance of the morning session, trading in the first hour aggregating about 200,000 shares, with some diminution of activity toward midday. Prices continued to rise however, the feature being Union Pacific, which was the most prominent stock at an advance of 2 points. Taking the morning's best prices as a basis, the level of quoted values was highest of any time since the exchange resumed operations. The fact that dealings centered about the seasoned issues instead of the specialties was accepted as an indication of the market's inherent soundness. Bonds were active and firm.

The business of keeping sheep on city parks is profitable. In Kansas City a flock of lambs was bought in the spring. The 500 animals grazed all summer on Swope Park, and saved the city the expense of cutting the grass. The sheep have lately been sold at a profit of $480.

You are interested, almost as much as we are, in extending the use of the Safe Home Match. It is the most reliable, the most efficient and the safest match that can be made. It is absolutely non-poisonous. It is made under conditions that forever do away with one of the worst of occupational diseases. It removes a poison from the reach of children in American homes.

We ask you to use this new non-poisonous match and to urge others to do likewise. If Safe Home Matches were universally used, scores of lives and millions of dollars worth of property would be saved every year.

CHEERS

OF RUSSIAN SOLDIERS FOR THE VANQUISHED AUSTRIANS, HEARD IN PRZEMYSL.

Flower of Hungarian Infantry Was Included Among Defenders of the Fortress.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Geneva, Via Paris, March 24.—A summary of what purports to be the conditions upon which the Austrian garrison at Przemyśl offered to surrender to the Russians is printed by the Tribune. The following stipulations are said to have been made: First, full honors of war for the garrison.

Second, special treatment for the prisoners, providing that officers shall be paroled and that none of the troops shall be sent to Siberia.

Third, the right to transport to Austria those killed and wounded during recent attacks.

Fourth, complete liberty for the civil population with the right to leave or stay in the city.

"The defenders of the fortress marched out of Przemyśl to Russian headquarters with colors flying," says the Tribune in its account of the surrender.

"The Austrian governor surrendered his sword to the Russian commander while thousands of Austrian troops piled their arms and ammunition in front of the Russian regiments drawn up in line. The Muscovite troops cheered the unarmed Austrians after their last parade.

"The fall of Przemyśl has made a profound impression in Hungary as the flower of the Hungarian infantry was included among the defenders of the city, which was considered impregnable."

WOMEN'S CONGRESS TO URGE A TRUCE IN EUROPE'S WAR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, March 24.—The program for the great woman's international congress in the interest of peace to be held at The Hague next month, just received here from Holland, shows that the first move to be made in the congress will be to urge a truce in the European war. Women of practically all nations including those at war are expected to attend the congress. Exercises will be held in Dutch, English, French and German. "Each of the belligerent nations claiming that it is not an aggressor, but is fighting in self-defense, are asked to publicly define the terms on which they are willing to make peace," says the program. It is proposed that the women demand that all future international disputes shall be referred to arbitration, the powers uniting to bring pressure to bear on any country resorting to arms.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR. LOOK YOUNG

Gray Hair Darkened So Evenly Nobody Will Know—No Dye.

You can turn gray, faded, streaked with gray hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll apply, a few times, Q-Ban Color Restorer to hair and scalp like a shampoo. Q-Ban is harmless, not sticky, delightful to use and darkens gray hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied. Q-Ban acts on the roots, makes gray hair healthy and produces that soft, dark lustre and abundance to the hair which makes the hair so fascinating and attractive, besides preventing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair and promotes its growth. Try Q-Ban and you'll be delighted with your beautiful, soft, fluffy dark hair and lots of it and youthful appearance. Money back if it fails to darken gray hair. Only 50c for a big 7-oz. bottle. GREAT SHOWING OF OHIO PRODUCTS AT FRISCO EXPOSITION

The last general assembly appropriated $25,000 for an agricultural exhibit at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco, the appropriation to be apportioned as follows: $15,000 for transportation of horses, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry, and $10,000 for agricultural and horticultural products.

Newton M. Miller, Director Commissioner of the Ohio Commission, has just returned from the Exposition, and makes a gratifying report of the exhibit as so far gathered. He will spend the next two weeks in adding to the agricultural, horticultural exhibit, it being the Commission's desire to make a shipment of at least two cars early in April. The live stock and poultry exhibit will be taken up later, due announcement of which will be made in ample time.

The Commission believes this will be a splendid opportunity for Ohio to make a showing of its wide possibilities, and the assistance of all interested farmers, poultry raisers and others is earnestly desired. At a meeting of the Commission the past week Charles Allen of Washington, C. H. and L. P. Dailey of Tacoma, members of the Commission, were appointed a committee to collect, shop and install the agricultural exhibit with the least possible delay. Offers of exhibits and suggestions will be welcomed. Write or communicate with the Committee or Newton M. Miller, Director Commissioner, Columbus, Ohio.

Theatres

The Billy Watson's Big Show, the attraction at Auditorium—one night on Friday, March 26th, will be seen in a two-act burlesque, "The Parisian Widow," gotten up for the sole purpose of laughter and amusement. The plot of this funny burlesque takes place outside of Paris when both a German and an Irishman fall in love with a pretty widow, which leads to many complicated situations the unravelling of which are extremely funny.

Evelyn Ferris, as the French actress, is said to be one of the prettiest girls on the stage. Yvonne Berger, the Parisian Widow, is a native of the gay city and possesses all the chic and grace attributed to that fair land. George P. McFarland, a wealthy Irish contractor and Mul Clark, the Flying Dutchman, both in love with the widow. Fred Reese, with his sweet voice, Jennie Gladstone, a stately blonde together with a beauty chorus will help to keep the plot moving from start to finish. A surprising good feature is Rosina, a girl from the Far East, portraying her native dance, "The Arab's Dream."

DECISION AGAINST PATENTEE OF ARTICLE

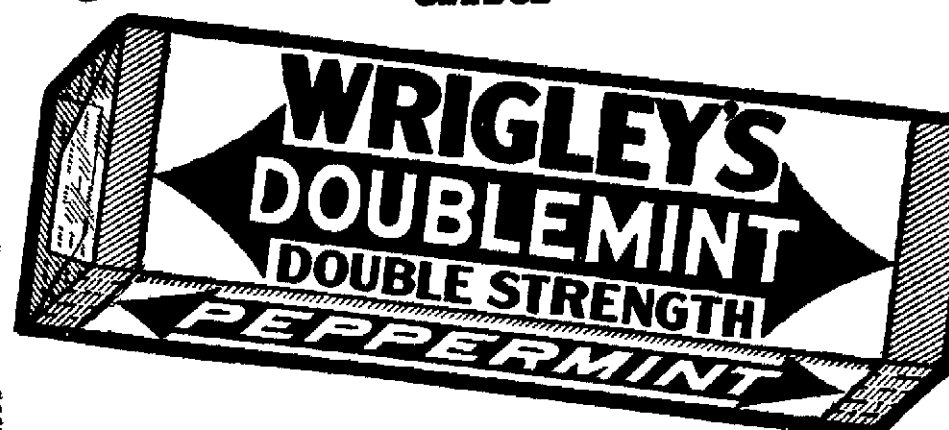

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, March 24.—The right of a patentee under the patent law to fix the price at which a patented article must be sold at retail, was denied by Judge Augustus H. Hand, in a decision handed down yesterday in the U. S. district court. A suit brought by the Victor Talking machine company to restrain R. H. Macey & Co from selling phonographs and records at a lower price than that fixed by the Victor company, was dismissed by Judge Hand.

YOUR HEAD AND STOMACH

Headache caused by a disturbed digestion is nearly always accompanied by pain in the stomach, belching of gas, vomiting and often by constipation. This sort of headache is generally located in the forehead and is not constant but comes and goes.

It does not come on immediately after eating but after the food has had time to ferment which it does because the digestive fluids that should take care of it are insufficient, because the glands that secrete these fluids are weak, because the blood is failing to nourish these glands properly.

Rich, red blood is the first essential to proper digestion and the digestive process cannot go on without it. When lack of nourishing blood causes fermentation and poisons are also caused from the digestive tract, the pain in your head, advises you of the fact. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give the blood just the elements they need to correct this condition and, with a laxative, when required, form a perfect treatment for the headaches of indigestion.

Mention this paper and we will send you two little books on the diet and the proper use of a laxative. Address: Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

AUSTRIANS BLOW UP BUILDINGS ON ITALIAN FRONTIER

(Associated Press Telegram) Geneva, via Paris, March 24.—An uncensored dispatch to the Tribune from the Austrian border states that Austrian military engineers have blown up with dynamite all the buildings between Sugane Pass, in Trent and Lake Garda on the Italian frontier, which would be in the line of the Rovereto. The eastern part of the Rovereto is reported to have been abandoned and all the buildings torn down. All persons suspected of pro-Italian sympathies are said to have been sent into the interior to be interned.

Chivington Opposed to Fultz's Plan

(Associated Press Telegram) Chicago, March 24.—Thomas M. Chivington, president of the American Association does not agree with the plan of arbitration proposed by David Fultz, president of the Baseball Players' Fraternity for settling the baseball war.

"Fultz is talking from the players' viewpoint," Chivington said last night. "Unsettled business conditions combined with the baseball war have forced all leagues in the country to adopt a policy of retirement. Salaries and player limits have been cut, and I do not think it is an exaggeration to say that one-third of the ball players in the country will be without employment this season."

"All this is due to the stand taken by the players last season. With the Federal League as a club and with the Fraternity to back them up in many of their demands, the men took liberties that cannot be allowed if the game is to prosper."

"Repeated jumping has disgusted the patrons of baseball which the club owners must suffer. To protect themselves, the club owners must cut expenses."

W. VA. UNIVERSITY'S SALARIES PAID BY MORGANTOWN BANKS

Morgantown, W. Va., March 24.—Local banks today went to the rescue of the faculty of West Virginia university here and paid their salaries with the understanding that the payroll would be taken care of monthly in similar manner until the state is able to discharge its obligations. Lack of funds is due to the failure of the last session of the legislature to appropriate for many of the state educational and charitable institutions.

THIN PEOPLE CAN INCREASE WEIGHT

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Evans' drug store and other leading druggists in Newark and vicinity sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

KIRKERSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI.

Quite a large representation of the Kikersville High School Alumni met in the high school room on last Friday evening, and perfected a permanent organization, and will hold annual meetings and banquets.

The alumni numbers more than 100 and it is expected that a very large per cent will be come active in the organization. A meeting and banquet will be held early in June, and the following is a list of the officers:

Honorary President, Edwin M. Larason, Newark.

President, H. D. Emswiler, Kikersville.

Vice President, Avery Martin, Hebron, R. F. D.

Secretary, Ruth Dickerson, Outville.

Treasurer, Miss Theodate Brown, Hebron, R. F. D.

The President appointed the following committees: Program Committee, Mrs. Maggie Headlee, Edgar Brown, E. M. Larason.

Banquet Committee, Mrs. Jessie M. Wells, Chas. Walker, Theodate Brown.

The next business meeting will be held in the Kikersville High School room on Friday evening, April 6th, 1915, and a cordial invitation is extended to all members to attend.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally. Breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhea. Listen. Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 5-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by California Fig Syrup Company. Refuse any other kind with contempt.

STONEWALL JACKSON'S WIDOW DIED TODAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

(Associated Press Telegram) Charlotte, N. C., March 24.—Mrs. Mary Anna Jackson, widow of Gen. Stonewall Jackson, died at her home here this morning.

Mrs. Jackson was born near this city, July 21, 1831, the daughter of Robert Hall Harrison, a Presbyterian minister and founder of Davidson college. She attended Salem, N. C. academy and college, finishing in 1849.

Her marriage took place in July, 1857. Jackson then was a major serving as instructor in the Virginia military institute at Lexington. She became a close student of military tactics and always took an aggressive interest in the fortunes of the confederate armies. After her husband died of wounds in 1863, she wrote a volume of memories of his career.

General and Mrs. Jackson had two children, both daughters. One died in infancy and the other married William E. Christian. At her death in 1899 she left a daughter, who became the wife of L. R. Preston, a Charlotte attorney and a son, Thomas Jackson Christian, now a lieutenant in the U. S. Cavalry stationed in the Philippines.

Mrs. Jackson's last days were spent at the old Jackson homestead in this city. She had been ill for many months and suffered a relapse yesterday.

PITTSBURGH POLICE MUST RECOGNIZE BOY SCOUTS' BADGE

(Associated Press Telegram) Pittsburgh, Pa., March 24.—Director Charles S. Hubbard, of the department of public safety yesterday issued an order that Pittsburgh policemen must hereafter recognize badges worn by Boy Scouts. The order resulted from a complaint received by the director that a man claiming to be a patrolman had interfered with Harry Stein, a Boy Scout, when the latter was trying to give first aid to a little girl who had rushed from her home with her clothing in flames as the boy was passing. The girl later died.

GERMANS REMOVE ARTILLERY FROM BEFORE OSSOWETZ

(Associated Press Telegram) London, March 24.—Official announcement has been made in Petrograd, says the correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company, that the Germans since Sunday have removed all but four or five heavy batteries from before Ossowetz. The Russian statement adds:

"A couple of 12 calibre howitzers were abandoned after the first battle, one of which was damaged by our fire. Shots from the howitzers failed to crush the masonry of the fortress. Superiority in artillery fire was distinctly on our side. Not only was the German attack far from endangering the Ossowetz forts, but the enemy failed to dislodge our infantry from its field work."

In an Austrian attack on the 19th on the front in the vicinity of Ropitz the enemy opened a hurricane fire with 12-inch howitzers under cover of twenty enemy batteries, at 4 o'clock in the morning, attacked our forces which were in greatly inferior strength. Our infantry opened fire with extremely careful aim at the enemy who, supported by reserves, approached to within 300 paces of our trenches. His reserves were exhausted at 9 o'clock and the enemy withdrew, leaving the area covered by his killed and wounded."

"Just the old home taste I've hankered for"

How many times have you, too, wished for apple butter like that which was made on the old homestead years ago?

How often do memories steal back at the thought of it? Of the sweet-scented apple orchard, flowering in the spring, ripening under the kisses of summer sunshine, and in the fall giving up its luscious, red-ripe fruit for that delight of the long winter months—golden brown apple butter! Ah, how good it was!

The minute you taste—

Lippincott
TRADE MARK
Apple Butter

—you'll realize you have found the old home taste again. And no wonder! Just consider how Lippincott Apple Butter is made—

We follow a famous recipe used on an old New England homestead for over fifty years. We use nothing but the choicest and tastiest of apples, the most fragrant of spices, and the purest of white granulated sugar.

And we make it in a bright, spotless factory-kitchen where those good old-fashioned, standards of honesty and purity prevail, amid clean wholesome surroundings, by clean, wholesome people.

Order a trial jar now—enjoy again the old home taste you've hankered for.

15c and 25c jars at all good grocers

The Lippincott Co. Cincinnati, O.

You will find the old home taste and purity in all of the Lippincott Products. Ask your Grocer about our complete Line.

CENTRAL LEAGUE IS READY FOR OPENING GAME

(Associated Press Telegram)
St. Wayne, Ind., March 21.—According to President Louis Heilbroner of the Central baseball league, practically everything is set in the reorganized circuit for the opening of the season April 21.

The dropping of Springfield and the expansion of the circuit to eight clubs, have brought three new local organizations into the league—Wheeling, Erie and Youngstown—and in Port Wayne there has been a reorganization with local capital purchasing the interests of Claude H. Varnell of Wheeling, who has retired from this city after seven seasons ownership. In the five cities of the old circuit that remain, three of them will have new managers—Dayton, Ft. Wayne and Terre Haute—while President Essick will himself manage Grand Rapids and C. E. (Punch) Knoll retains the field marshalship at Evansville.

The several teams of the league are organized as follows: Dayton, J. Elmer Redelle, president, Harry Conpton, manager; Erie, Thos. J. O'Connor, president, Larry Quiblan, manager; Ft. Wayne, Wm. C. Klitzke, president, Babe Myers, manager; Evansville, Harry W. Stahlhofer, president, C. E. Knoll, manager; Grand Rapids, William E. Essick, president and manager; Terre Haute, Webb E. Beggs, president, H. W. (Lefty) Gilbert, manager; Wheeling, H. C. Whitaker, president, C. S. Shriver, manager; Youngstown, James S. McKeon, president, Curley Blount, manager.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB OF GRANVILLE GAVE A UNIQUE FUNCTION

(Special to The Advocate)
Granville, March 24.—The Fortnightly club of thirty members and their guests were entertained at the hospitable home of Mrs. J. M. Swartz last evening with the most delightful function of the year. This was an "extreme" in guise of a clever little drawing room farces presented by eight of the members under the efficient direction of Mrs. C. D. Coons. The large rooms were arranged as stage and auditorium with part of the living room curtained off for the actors, the library and side hall serving as dressing rooms and exits. In front the lights were turned low—and a first class orchestra, composed of Miss Ruth Hawk, Mrs. G. M. Strong, Mrs. C. J. Loveless, Misses McCafferty and Evangeline Davies played several popular airs before the rising of the curtain. The programs distributed were artistically gotten up in booklet form, the title page reading:

At the
Swartz Theatre
A Farce in Two Acts
"Second Floor Spoonydyke"
presented by
The Local Hatline Lido Co.
Tuesday, March 23, 1915.
The program as outlined was as follows:
Act I.—Room of Miss Dodo McLoren's apartments in the "Spoonydyke." Time—Luncheon Time.
Act II.—Same as Act I. Time—After the matinee.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
Artie Bruce.....Alma Tight
Bigler Jimson.....Flora Howe
Col. Ginty.....Blonda Coons
Tyrene Herbert.....Laura Loveless
Jenks, Janitor.....Anna Henderson
Tessie Ginty.....Alkie Cook
Dodo McLaren.....Gertrude Hawk
Sarah, her maid.....Anna Lyon
Few parlor plays can boast the success achieved by the eight women in the above cast. While it was the broadest farce, each member of the company had infused into her part just enough of her own personality to give the "touch of nature that makes the whole world kin." Some parts, of course, were more important than others in unraveling the amusing tangle of misunderstanding that beset the runaway couple on their way to the minister's, but each character of the playlet was impersonated in a surprisingly effective manner. On no stage could there have been a more successful entrance than that of Mrs. Alma Tight, who in the role of the runaway lover bursts into the actress' apartment loudly demanding: "His bride who had been carried on the train to New York alone, while he was in a wayside station foraging for sandwiches. She was almost too good to be true. Papa Ginty, an impetuous Southerner, who 'shoots first and explains afterwards' is on the train with the bereaved lover and arrives at Dodo's apartments soon afterward, and from that time on the action is swift and strenuous, full of surprises and laughter for the audience. Mrs. Coons was a fiery little man with a Shakespearean forehead and a coattail whisker, who contributed greatly to the realism of the play. Miss Hawk was a beautiful and convincing "Dodo" around whose bewildering person most of the action centered. Miss Anna Lyon, as Sarah her maid, was convincing in her efforts to attract Tyrene Herbert, the successful actor, engaged to Dodo, who in the person of Mrs. Loveless made a decided hit. Mrs. Flora Howe as Bigler Jimson, further complicated matters to the joy of the audience and Mrs. Henderson, as the colored janitor, was a picture of a woman who was an ideal Tessie and in her disguise as "Francis" while hiding from her near-sighted father, following the play refreshments were served by the hostess and several of the club members. The president announced that there would be no more plays this year, the remaining meetings being of serious import.

On March 26 and 27 Denison will enjoy the presence of President Guy Potter Denison of the University of Vermont, also national president of

Out-of-Town Auto Men Are Pleased With Free Admission Feature of Dealers' Exhibit

"You have a fine show, much better than one would expect to find in a town of this size," said Mr. Johnson of the Auto Inn, Columbus after looking over the Newark show Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Johnson was a guest at the dinner tendered the dealers and friends by W. C. Kuster of the Servserv restaurant in the Arcade Annex.

Mr. Johnson was pleased with the free admission feature of the show. He said that this was the first show he had attended where no admission fee was charged and thought the idea was a good one.

The sentiment expressed by this one visitor is similar in tone to the remarks made by other out-of-town automobile men who are attending the show. Almost without exception these men were surprised to find a show of the magnitude of the Newark exhibit, in a town of Newark's size.

Many of them have been free to compliment the local dealers upon the enterprise of the local association.

Tuesday night another big crowd thronged the Arcade and Annex looking over the cars and hearing the good points of each exhibited by the dealer or factory representatives.

Newark people have shown unusual interest in automobiles and their interest is being reflected in the number of sales already made and the number of prospects which have developed during the show.

The Cadillac 8-cylinder chassis continues to attract considerable attention. Police officials who will be called upon to handle the new Cadillac patrol wagon, if it is installed, are particularly interested, this type of car having been favored by the police and fire vehicles received a month ago.

Murry Connolly has been disappointed in not having received the 6-cylinder Grant car which he expected in time for the opening of the show. He announced Wednesday that the car would arrive from the factory in time for the closing day of the show. It will be on exhibition Saturday and Sunday evening.

The social features of the show have not been neglected in the excitement of talking to prospects. Tuesday night all the exhibitors and factory men were guests of W. C. Kuster at the Servserv restaurant. Mr. Kuster arranged a long table at which about thirty guests were seated. A splendid menu was served and the dealers enjoyed the event highly.

Charles Duerr, florist in the Arcade provided several vases of beautiful flowers for the tables and Stewart Brothers & Alward furnished the music for the occasion, installing a Columbia Grafonola for the evening.

Before the guests were served, several matters relating to the show were brought up by President Connolly. The matter of appointing judges to award the prize for the best window display in the Arcade and Annex was disposed of. The President, on motion, appointing F. L. Beggs, W. W. Gard and Walter Symons as judges.

It was also voted to give a banquet at the Kuster restaurant in the Arcade Annex Friday night, at which the exhibitors would be privileged to invite employees of their garages, salesmen and factory representatives.

Two Practicing Physicians Describe Marked Value of Nerv-Worth.

The endorsements of Nerv-Worth recently written by two Huntington, W. Va., physicians were so significant of the remedy's marked success in circles where judgment has a scientific value that they are here reproduced for the benefit of those victims of nervous disorders who missed seeing them when printed a week or so ago. The first statement was made by Dr. N. B. Ferguson and reads as follows:

"Nerv-Worth is truly a great remedy. I have tested it professionally in my practice and actually and practically in my family. It gives me pleasure to recommend it to the profession and also to the general public. It, in my opinion, will prove a great boon to sufferers from the troubles for which it is intended to be an ameliorative remedy."

"I suffered with nervous indigestion and all the ills originating from such conditions. Have been taking Nerv-Worth for one week and can say my conditions are much improved and I can recommend Nerv-Worth to any one suffering from neurasthenia."

T. J. Evans, druggist, sells Nerv-Worth. Guaranteed, $1.00 a bottle.

Michael Sachs, 3-24-21.

To Remain for Saturday.
Billy Watson's Show, which is to appear at the Auditorium Friday night, will remain over Saturday and give a matinee performance at 2:15, the price being 25 cents for all seats, and an evening show at 8:15 at scheduled prices.

High School Minstrel.
Another great feature of the High School Minstrel, says the press agent, in the "Royal Highlander Pipers." The bagpipes are played by Harry Mathews, Hoot Mon! Another great feature of the Minstrel is going to be a sketch staged by Bud Ryan and Frank Graham. This promises to be a good one as this duo is famous for its comedy. The seats for Friday night are nearly all gone, but there are a few more seats left for Thursday night, so if you want tickets buy them for Thursday night. There are 126 tickets left for Thursday night and 20 more left for Friday night.

The custom has been started in some Western cities of printing the maiden name of a woman after that of her husband in the directory.
